Bluff City Athletic Club, NFP will host the SWIBL (Southwest Illinois Baseball League) All Star Games on July 23rd at Gordon Moore Park in Alton. The league provides players ages 8-13 with the opportunity to play competitive baseball and improve their skills prior to entering high school while promoting sportsmanship and respect. The league is sanctioned by USSSA (United States Sports Specialty Association) and was started in 2003. The league has more than 90 teams representing the Illinois counties of Calhoun, Macoupin, Madison, Bond, St. Clair, and Trenton. All stars will be selected by their teams. There will be 8 games across the 6 age groups on the evening of July 23rd at Moore Park.
