Alton –

Bluff City SOX announce that Braxton Stanfield and Tyler Norman have been named Southwest Senior All-Stars.

“Braxton came out of nowhere to be the ace of our pitching staff this season,” explained the SOX coach Brian Lewis. “Using a quality changeup and keeping the ball down he was able to keep opponents off balance and get outs. As a team we felt we were going to win the game every time Braxton took the mound,” he said. “Tyler was the best defensive catcher in the league, in my eyes,” Coach Lewis said. “He blocks everything, throws out runners and does a great job of calling a game. Tyler was also very clutch; he was a great hitter when men were on base.” “These two young men are tremendous teammates and citizens,” the coach concluded.

Bluff City Athletic Club, NFP is a non-profit organization dedicated to the development and training of aspiring youth athletes while providing them the opportunity to excel.
